

A modern hotel lounge interior. The space features a dark, polished floor and a curved wooden ceiling. In the foreground, there is a large, tufted grey sofa. To the left, a tall, dark, curved structure stands. In the background, a grey sofa is positioned near a large potted plant. On the wall, there are two pieces of art: a framed abstract painting with red and black shapes, and a framed photograph of two people. The lighting is warm and ambient.
