I Saloni 2006: Karim Rashid for Casamania

Karim is probably the master of fluid forms and soft shapes and for Casamania he really pulled off a coup d'etat this year. 6 new products all showing off his signature style and our favorite was most definitely the bar stool 'Twenty'. Breaking out of the mold of traditional barstools formulaic shapes, he created a really unique yet very comfortable new version that is probably going to pop up stateside by the end of the month. I Saloni '06: Casamania Alberto

Casamania is always good for some unique pieces that simply make you smile. No different this year, they deliver on their promise with Alberto. Alberto is a rack designed to dry clothing in the probably most stylish way possible. We loved it for the quirky and fresh approach to a product that usually gets no attention though as this example shows, could use some creativity.
